

Click the shopping district icon to explore more exciting content about the shopping district.

A Snaky Twist to the Lunar New Year Celebrations

1 Dihua St. Shopping District 1

2025/01/11(SAT)-2024/01/27(MON)

MRT Beimen Station
MRT Daqiaotou Station

Lunar New Year shopping Area established in Dihua Street in 1996 is the world's first shopping area dedicated to Lunar New Year shopping. It's a historic district that preserves both historical architecture and traditional industries. With its rich cultural heritage and an eclectic mix of old and new industries, it has become an important area to explore Taipei's story.

2 Rongbin Market 2

2025/01/21(TUE)-2025/01/28(TUE)

MRT Xingtian Temple Station
MRT Zhongshan Junior High School Station

Renowned for its fresh seafood, crisp vegetables, groceries, and delicious ready-to-eat dishes, this market combines the best of traditional markets and convenience stores. Whether you're shopping for ingredients to cook at home or enjoying fresh food on the spot, it has everything to satisfy your needs!

10 Dongmen Yongkang Shopping District 10

2025/01/11(SAT)-2025/01/27(MON)

MRT Dongmen Station

The bustling commercial district of Yongkang Street gathers a wide variety of Taiwan's delectable street snacks, diverse restaurants, and distinctive cafes that cater to different tastes. Its vibrant atmosphere is further enhanced by an array of unique boutique shops. Its rich cultural and historical background, combined with its distinctive charm, makes it a popular destination for both locals and tourists.